B. m, (Apr), by Tizway – Dancing Rage, by Sligo Bay–Ire. Trainer Rigattieri John. Bred by Mr & Mrs Annuncio Stanchieri & Farm III Enterprises (Fla).

TIZ HERSELF moved forward setting the pace from off the rail in the two to three path, was pressed briefly early up the backstretch by an outside rival, edged clear of that one heading to the far turn, was challenged again by that same foe coming to the quarter pole, was on even terms with that one through upper- to mid-stretch while possibly just headed, dug in to inch away late. WHYISSHESOOOLUCKY was caught five wide into the first turn, moved forward outside foes on that bend and shifted in a path, pressed the leader briefly up the backstretch, lost ground on that one, regained momentum on the far turn to bid coming to the quarter pole, was even through mid-stretch but fended off late. MAVILUS settled off the leaders into the first turn, saved ground tracking inside, came out a bit leaving the far turn just off the leading pair, moved out further in upper stretch, was no match for the top pair. CHALK HILL was taken back from outside runners into the first turn shifting in to the three to four path, moved back out leaving that bend and advanced a bit up the backstretch, was guided back nearer inside racing in the three path and ridden along three furlongs out, came out for the drive and ran on without threatening. REINA LA KELS Y chased briefly three wide through the first turn, dropped back between runners up the backstretch, faded. MONIQUES DAREDEVIL was caught four then three wide on the first turn, raced off the pace still wide into the far turn, was never near enough to threaten.
